

SUMMER FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Position Overview

D&R Greenway Land Trust and Tulpehaking Nature Center are seeking to hire a Delaware River Watershed Fellow to engage our watershed community, emphasizing the importance of watershed stewardship and helping reach new audiences. No prior experience or knowledge in watershed issues necessary.

Qualifications & Experience

Note: Spanish-speaking candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Candidates must be:

- 18 years of age by the June start date
- Available Tuesday-Saturday
- People-oriented, self-motivated, and able to work as a member of a team
- Able to lead hikes through varied terrain
- Comfortable using computer software such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Excel

Capstone Project

The DRW Fellow will be part of a cohort of 30+ other Fellows across 23 environmental centers in the Delaware River Watershed. Each Fellow will have the opportunity to develop and carry out a Capstone project over the course of the 12-week position. The results of these projects will be presented at the end of the season Watershed Fellowship Summit.

Fellow Responsibilities

The DRW Fellow will split their time between the Tulpehaking Nature Center (TNC) and D&R Greenway Land Trust (DRG). At the TNC, the Fellow will assist with environmental education programs, camps, and summer field trips. They will also lead nature walks and work with the County of Mercer to plan River Days 2021. At DRG, the Fellow will curate an exhibition of historical artifacts at the Point Breeze property and assist with an educational kayak program, both located in Bordentown, NJ.

Fellowship Timeline and Compensation

June 7: Fellow start date

June 16-18: Watershed Fellowship Training

August 20: Watershed Fellowship Summit

August 27: Last Day of Fellowship

This position pays $15 per hour. The Fellow will serve 35 hours per week.

How to Apply

Send a letter explaining why you are interested in this fellowship and how your skills will benefit the job to Nancy Faherty at nfaherty@drgreenway.org.

Applications will be accepted until March 31, 2021.

D&R GREENWAY
LAND TRUST

TULPEHAKING
nature center
at the Abbott Marshlands

